Featured Winery "RUTHERFORD RANCH"

NAPA VALLEY'S BEST VALUE! The winery is located on Napa Valley's scenic Silverado Trail within the Rutherford District. Of Napa's 14 designated AVA's (American Viticultural Area), the district is renowned for producing unsurpassed Cabernet Sauvignon along with other premium varietal grapes. Robert Parker, noted wine writer and critic, described Rutherford Ranch wines as "best value in Napa Valley."

2007 Rutherford Ranch, Cabernet Sauvignon

A beautiful deep ruby color with lush fruit aromas of raspberry and Bing cherry, hints of cedar box, bright mint and spicy cinnamon. A full-bodied wine with a rich mouthfeel. Balanced acidity and silky tannins spread to a long lingering finish.

MARCH MADNESS!

2007 Lander-Jenkins, Cabernet Sauvignon

The 2007 growing season for California was ideal by most standards and this wine is a great expression of vintage. Warm climate and rich soils give this wine aromas of Santa Rosa Plum, blackberry, cranberry, mint and chocolate. Full-bodied and well-structured with flavors of ripe Bing cherry, black currant, crème brûlée, firm but integrated tannins leading to a long lingering finish.
